Push and Pull Factors

Write "A pull factor" or "A push factor" next to each idea:

Things that make you want to leave your home country or city and go somewhere different.
Things or conditions that make you want to move to that place.

Choose if these expressions are a "push factor" or a "pull factor"

Escaping from war		Good salaries
Better social services		Plenty of food
Poor social services		Unemployment
Poor salaries		Political freedom
Job opportunities		Lots of doctors
Poor medical care		Political persecution
Better quality of life		Democracy
Lack of education		Too much crime and insecurity in your city

Choose if these expressions are an "advantage" or a "disadvantage":

For the home country (the country a person leaves):

Division of families
The emigrants send home lots of money to support their families.
Less young population
Loss of skilled workers
Locals get better job prospects.

For the destination country (the country a person arrives):

Limited education
There are more skilled workers
Diseases
Cultural diversity
Discrimination / Racism
Cheap workers (immigrants get paid less than the locals)
Immigrants start new businesses in the new county
