

GEOGRAPHY OF ASIA STUDENT A

The continent of Asia is the world's largest and most populous continent with nearly (1) billion people calling Asia home. Asia also contains the world's most populous country, China, and the world's largest country, Russia. Asia borders (3) and to the west and the Pacific Ocean to the east.

The continent of Asia is so large and diverse that it often is divided (5)

Asia is rich in diverse races, cultures, and languages. Many of the world's major religions came out of Asia including (7) and Buddhism.

Asia has a major influence on world culture and the world's economy. Countries such as Russia, China, Japan and India produce products and services that are used by (9) Asia is also abundant in natural resources. Oil in the Middle East is a major supplier of much of the world's energy.

Asia is almost (11) % of the world's land area and contains 60% of the world's population.

The highest point on earth, Mt. Everest, is in Asia. The (13) point on land, the Dead Sea, is also in Asia.

The Great Wall of China is the only man-made structure that can be seen from space.

Asia is the only continent that borders two other continents; Africa and Europe. It sometimes joins with a third continent, North America, in the winter by (15) forming in the Bering Sea.

Asia contains many (17) in the world including the two largest; Shanghai, China and Mumbai, India.

