Last Saturday I visited my girlfriend Laura's parent's house in Apan. They have a nice house and all her relatives were there. As soon as I entered, I _____ myself to her mom and dad. Her mom was cooking so I offered to dice some vegetables, but the knife was really sharp and I _____ myself, everybody got scared, but I _____ the problem myself, I went into the bathroom and washed the wound with soap, everything was under control in no time. We spent the night at the house and before we went to bed I went outside to call my parents, but I saw an old woman _____ on the grass by herself in the middle of the garden, I approached her and asked if she was Laura's grandma, she only said "I've _____ myself" I told her to wait and I proceeded to go inside the house, I told Laura that her grandma was hurt. Without looking at me she said, "My grandma died twenty years ago, she _____ herself two weeks after my grandpa died, they actually _____ by themselves in this house all their life". I got chills! "But I just saw her!" I said. She stared at me for a minute and replied, "You are not the first to say this". I got goosebumps! "Did I just see a ghost?!" I _____ myself, and what she explained after that freaked me out even more "In fact she was buried here, my uncle John _____ the grave himself" she said. "You're probably hungry, come with me to the kitchen and have some cake, I _____ it myself" I didn't know what to think. She got more scared when I cut my finger than when I told her what happened. I guess she thought I was joking, but I know what I saw. Needless to say, I didn't get any sleep that night!
