

READING COMPREHENSION.

Read the email from Olivia to Jess.

New Message

To: Jess

Subject: Holiday!

Hi Jess,

How are you? Are you going on holiday this summer?

We are going to go to Wales, and mum and dad said you can come too! Would you like to?

We are going to drive there on the 31st of July. It's a long way - five hours in the car! We are going to stay in a cottage for a week. Have a look at the photo, it's in St David's, which is the smallest city in the UK!

We are going to go hiking and swim in the sea. Mum says we can cook sausages on a campfire on the beach.

We are going to go canoeing, too. There are dolphins in the sea!

Do you want to come? I hope you can!

Love,

Olivia x

Sans Serif                                            <img alt="Text style dropdown" data-bbox="9545 788 9558 8

Complete

An email has a subject line. This tells you what it is about.

Informal emails start with a greeting e.g. Hi or Hello.

Informal emails can finish with Yours sincerely or From and then your name.

You can add a kiss with the letter

Answer the questions

Who is Olivia writing to?

Where is Olivia going to go on holiday?

How is she going to travel?

Where is she going to sleep?

Which activities is she going to do?

What is she going to eat?