1 CANTEEN is a great place to come for good, simple meals. The food is cheap and there are pencils and pictures to colour for younger customers who might get bored while they wait to be served.

2 CLOS MAGGIORE is full of flowers and has a glass roof and a real fire in the winter. It's hard to believe you're in the centre of London. The 'tasting' menu lets you try lots of different dishes if you can't decide what to eat.

3 The food at PARADISE is prepared by a celebrity chef. It's a fun place with music or comedy most evenings, but companies or celebrities can reserve private dining spaces. Evenings only.

4 COTTONS is a noisy but fun West Indian bar and restaurant a few kilometres north of the centre of London. There are lots of spicy dishes and you can listen to music on Fridays and weekends.

5 DININGS is the place to go for good, cheap Japanese food. It's a long way from the centre of the city, but it's cheap. The dining area is dark and you may have to share a table with strangers.

6 THE GUN is a traditional English pub which is over 250 years old. The food is traditional English. Sit outside and watch the boats on the river, with Tower Bridge behind them. Over 18s only.

7 STEF'S is an Italian restaurant in the centre of London near to the shops, cinemas and theatres. It's perfect for couples and it also offers a 'pre-theatre' menu from 5–7 p.m. Great pizzas and pastas.
