

Grocery Store

Listen and fill the blanks

Maria went to the _____ to buy some items. She needed milk, _____, eggs, and apples. First, she picked up a carton of milk from the _____. Then, she went to the bakery and chose a loaf of fresh bread. After that, she found a dozen eggs in the _____. Finally, she selected a few red apples from the _____. With her _____ full, Maria went to the cashier, paid for her groceries, and happily walked home.

Choose a correct verb form

Jack and his mom go / goes to the grocery store to buy some items to make a meal for his family. They plan / plans to cook spaghetti, so he need / needs pasta, tomatoes, garlic, and ground beef. First, he finds a box of spaghetti in the pasta aisle. Then, his mom pick / picks some fresh tomatoes and a bulb of garlic from the produce section. After that, they choose / chooses a package of ground beef. With everything they need / needs in his basket, Jack and his mom go / goes to the cashier, pay / pays for the groceries, and hurry / hurries home to start cooking for his family.