

Subject and Object Pronouns

Subject
I
You
He (Tom)
She (Mary)
It (My car)
We
They

Object
me
you
him her it us
them

*Romeo loves Juliet.
He loves her.
Does she love him?*

Replace the underlined words with one pronoun.

My mum is with Julia.

_____ is with _____.

I see an elephant and a giraffe.

I see _____.

The cat is playing with my little brother.

_____ is playing with _____.

My cousins feed the ducks every day.

_____ feed _____ every day.

John and I gave flowers to our mum today.

_____ gave _____ to _____ today.

Dominic is eating a hamburger right now.

_____ 's eating _____ right now.

Why is Carl feeding that cow?

Why is _____ feeding _____?

Jennifer sets the tables every morning.

_____ sets _____ every morning.

I don't like my uncle Arnold.

I don't like _____.

The children are taking their pets to school today.

_____ are taking _____ to school today.

Jane is going to see Mrs. Marshall.

_____ is going to see _____.

My brother and I are watching the monkeys.

_____ are watching _____.

Adam is with you and me.

_____ is with _____.

Peter and Paul are watching a movie.

_____ are watching _____.

David washes his car every Saturday.

_____ washes _____ every Saturday.

Mike needs new shoes.

_____ needs _____.