

Upgrade Your Vocabulary

"Once you find something you love to do, be the best at doing it."

1 Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs in parentheses.

- I've advised you against _____ (smoke) in here.
- She's good at _____ (speak) in public.
- I went home after _____ (leave) the party.
- You can improve your English by _____ (use) the internet.
- I'm tired of _____ (hear) excuses.
- Why don't you have something hot to drink before _____ (go) to bed?
- She's always dreamed about _____ (travel) by plane.
- She was promoted for _____ (get) new accounts.
- Besides _____ (be) a doctor, he also writes books.
- I'm looking forward to _____ (meet) you.

2 Complete the sentences below with the prepositions in the box.

about after against at before for besides from by of on to up in with

- I'm tired of waiting _____ him.
- He left the classroom _____ finishing the exercise.
- Denise prevented me _____ buying that useless device.
- All of us were familiar _____ the place, so we didn't get lost.
- We're playing _____ the champions next Saturday.
- My parents arrived late _____ the airport, so they couldn't depart.
- Come and sit _____ me.
- There has been an increase _____ 20% in this month's sales.
- Leave your books here _____ you start the test.
- Why don't you come _____? It's too cold outside.
- Let's talk _____ that later.
- I walked _____ the beach, sat, and read for hours.
- _____ my daughter, I have no family.
- Go _____ the stairs and take the ball.
- _____ now on, you should arrive earlier.

TIP

The ing form must be used in verbs that come after a preposition.