YOUR LAST HOLIDAY

LILLY

Last April, I went on a six-day scout camp near our city. I don't like sleeping in tents, so I didn't really want to go at first but my mum insisted. Fifteen other girls went on the trip and we divided into four groups. My group's tent was quite big and we had a lot of fun chatting (all night!). In the daytime we did projects in the forest and we walked a lot. I want to go again next year!

MARK

My parents took me and my brother to Paris on holiday for a long weekend last July. It was my first time in a plane so I was quite excited. We stayed in a hotel and visited a lot of monuments. The food was great and we ate in restaurants every day, but of course the thing that we enjoyed most was a trip to Disneyland. That was so cool!

TOM

I spent a week in Corsica at Easter last year. My Dad is from Corsica so we go there quite often. This time I went with two of my best friends and we stayed at my grandparents' house near the beach. My friends had a great time, but I found it very tiring because they wanted me to translate for them all the time!

NO ORDINARY PET

Jimmy is a very special dog. He lives with Sarah and Kevin Ashby and their parents in Cornwall. However, it is surprising that Jimmy is still living in Cornwall after he spent a year having an adventure!

It all started when the family went on holiday. They travelled five hundred miles to Scotland by car from Cornwall with their dog sitting on the back seat with the children. They all had a wonderful time. They walked up mountains and Jimmy loved jumping into the lakes, or 'lochs' as they are called in Scotland. The whole family did everything together.

On the last day, the Ashby family packed their suitcases to go home. When they finished, Jimmy wasn't there. The whole family spent hours trying to find him, but they couldn't. At last it was time to go home. The children were very upset and said they didn't want to leave without Jimmy. The family drove back to Cornwall without their pet. They thought he was lost forever.

For a year, the family were very sad. They hoped someone would find Jimmy. They even thought about getting a new dog, but they knew that no dog would be as good as Jimmy.

A year later Sarah heard a strange noise outside the door of their house. When she opened it she found Jimmy standing there. The whole family cried because everyone was so happy that Jimmy was home. To this day, no one knows what Jimmy did during that year away!
