

- 4 ●●● Complete the sentences with one word in each gap.

- The satellite is ten metres long.
- The _____ is ten metres.
- It's four metres _____.
- The _____ is four metres.

- Slow down! You're doing 120 kilometres per _____!

- I live twelve kilometres _____ my school.
- It usually _____ me thirty-five minutes to cycle there.

- 5 ● Write the numbers.

- six hundred and fifty-eight: 658
- eight million three hundred thousand: _____
- three thousand seven hundred and sixty-nine: _____
- four billion eight hundred and seventy-two thousand: _____
- nine point three million: _____

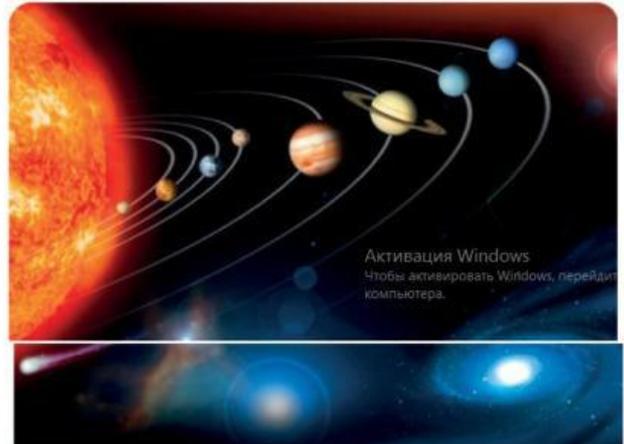

- 6 ●●● Choose the correct option.

- The number of satellites / telescopes in the Earth's orbit at the moment is estimated to be four thousand / thousands five hundred and fifty.
- Our galaxy / moon is over a hundred, thousand / hundred thousand light years across.
- The satellite is twenty metres long / length and its wide / width is five metres.
- The closest star / spacecraft to our Sun is four point two / four stop two light years away.
- There are normally six or seven astronomers / astronauts on board the space station / system, but sometimes there are ten or more.
- The railway station is ten kilometres from / away the city centre. It takes / walks half an hour to get there.
- There are eight planets / stars in our space station / solar system.
- If you look carefully through the satellite / telescope, you can sometimes see a comet / moon.

- 7 ●●● Write the numbers as words.

- 6,499: six thousand four hundred and ninety-nine
- 6.8 billion: _____
- 7,000,300,000: _____
- 123: _____
- 476,000: _____
- 12,413,389,672: _____

- 8 ●●● Complete the words in the article.

Space facts

you might not know

The closest ¹*planet* to Earth is Venus, which is over about sixty-one million kilometres ²*a* _____. The furthest planet from Earth in our solar ³*s* _____ is Neptune, which is up to 4.6 billion kilometres ⁴*f* _____ Earth. Some think that Pluto is the furthest at 7.47 billion kilometres away, but in 2006 scientists decided that Pluto is not actually a planet. The largest planet is Jupiter, and it has at least ⁵*m* _____ in its orbit.

The first ⁶*a* _____ was Yuri Gagarin. He travelled into ⁷*o* _____ on Vostok 1 and in 1961 became the first man in space. Vostok 1 was small – it was only 2.3 metres ⁸*w* _____ – and the mission lasted a hundred ⁹*a* _____ eight minutes. This was incredible at the time because a spacecraft has to travel at over 40,000 kilometres ¹⁰*p* _____ hour to leave the Earth's atmosphere.