

Match the phrasal verbs to the meanings

PASS AWAY	To cease, end
	To visit or make contact with (a person)
KEEP UP	To have respect (for)
	to maintain a pace or rate set by another
CHECK IN	to confuse or confound to anticipate with eagerness or pleasure
MAKE UP	to make into a mixture to wait or hope for
LOOK FORWARD TO	to increase, as in quality or value to discover, to research
PUT UP	to maintain in good condition to provide or supply; give
LOOK UP	to build; erect to abandon hope (for)
GIVE UP	to admit failure and stop trying to record one's arrival, as at a hotel or for work
MIX UP	to make start functioning by operating the Controls
TURN ON	to devote completely (to) Fill in the blanks using the phrasal verbs above

- She decided to _____ herself entirely _____ her new career in law.
- Please _____ the ingredients thoroughly before baking.
- To start the engine, you need to _____ the ignition.
- I didn't mean to _____ the schedules; it was an honest mistake.
- After battling illness for many years, she finally _____.
- I always _____ at the hotel reception desk when I arrive.
- It's important to _____ the traditions of our ancestors.
- We need to _____ a solution by combining these chemicals.
- We should _____ the decorations for the party tomorrow.
- I _____ meeting you at the conference next month.
- Despite numerous attempts, he decided to _____ and try a new approach.
- Whenever I'm in trouble, I always _____ to my mentor for advice.
- Can you _____ with the speed of the fastest runner in the group?
- The landlord promised to _____ the apartment by fixing all the broken appliances.
- He studies diligently to _____ with the top students in his class.

Using the phrasal verbs in the vocabulary, complete the following text about traditions.

Every year, my family and I go on a vacation to relax and enjoy ourselves. Before we _____ (1) at the hotel, we always revise our plans to make sure we don't (2) _____ anything _____ or forget it. This year, we're going to a small village where my grandfather used to live before he _____ (3). I always _____ (4) to this trip because it's a time when we can _____ (5) some decorations in his memory and _____ (6) the traditions he taught us. Sometimes, we _____ (7) the local area to find new places and interesting facts. Once, we _____ (8) the museum schedule and missed an important exhibit, but we didn't _____ (9). Instead, we decided to _____ (10) the TV and watch a documentary about it. Traveling can be challenging, but it's always rewarding in the end. I love that after these trips I feel fully alive and creative and I always _____ (11) incredible stories. I hope this family tradition would never (12) _____.