

3 Read and order the words. Listen and check.

Hi, my name is Detective Hannah! I'm going to (vesintiegat) the mystery of the missing cake by looking for clues! Can you help me to find the answers and (olvse) the mystery? I have to (hrruy)!

So, the cake (dispparedae) from the kitchen at three o'clock. Our cat suddenly (appreaed) in the kitchen just before three o'clock. But I don't think it's her, because cats don't like chocolate!

I'm going to (earsch) for clues in the kitchen. Oh, look! There's some chocolate cake on the floor. I can (wollof) the chocolate cake all the way to the hall. I must (remmebre) that clue because it might be important.

Now, I'm going to talk to everyone who was in the house at three o'clock. I'm going to (sidcovre) the truth!

6 Read and match.

Hannah: The cake disappeared at three o'clock. Ed, what were you doing at three o'clock? What was Sophie doing?

Ed: Sophie and I were talking on the balcony. I was eating a sandwich. Were you drinking lemonade, Sophie?

Sophie: Yes, I was! We weren't eating your cake, Hannah!

Hannah: What about you, Danny? Were you eating cake in the kitchen at three o'clock?

Danny: No, I wasn't! I was walking up the stairs. I wasn't eating cake! What were your mum and sister doing?

Hannah: Mum was looking for chairs in the attic and Mia was playing in the hall.

Danny: I was standing on the stairs at three o'clock. Mia definitely wasn't in the hall.

Hannah: Aha! Mystery solved.

- | | |
|---|--|
| <input type="text"/> What were Sophie and Ed doing? | <input type="text"/> No, he wasn't. |
| <input type="text"/> What was Sophie doing? | <input type="text"/> Yes, she was. |
| <input type="text"/> What was Ed doing? | <input type="text"/> They were talking on the balcony. |
| <input type="text"/> Was Danny talking to Sophie and Ed? | <input type="text"/> No, she wasn't. |
| <input type="text"/> Was Mum looking for chairs in the attic? | <input type="text"/> He was eating a sandwich. |
| <input type="text"/> Was Mia helping Mum? | <input type="text"/> She was drinking lemonade. |

7 What were they doing at half past nine? Ask and answer.

- Louise / do → look / for her bag What was Louise doing at half past nine? She was looking for her bag.
- Max / go → go / to school
- Tom / do → sleep / on the sofa
- the friends / go → go / to the park
- the children / eat → eat / breakfast