3

Date: _____

Nouns countable • uncountable

countable nouns

a pupil	→ pupils	a child	→ children
a mango	→ mangoes	a person	→ people
a box	→ boxes	a mouse	→ mice
a cherry	→ cherries	a foot	→ feet

uncountable nouns

- bacon
- macaroni
- broccoli
- water

both countable and uncountable

a cucumber

a duck

a cake

some cucumber

some duck

some cake

Some nouns like 'cucumber', 'duck' and 'cake' can be both countable and uncountable. They are usually uncountable when they are cut into pieces.

Warm up Put the nouns given into the correct boxes.

bean beef cabbage lettuce longan pea soup spaghetti steak

countable	uncountable	both countable and uncountable
❶ a _____	❹ _____	❼ _____
❷ a _____	❺ _____	❽ _____
❸ a _____	❻ _____	❾ _____

Practice Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the words given.

1 Can I have some _____ (pork chop), please?

2 There are five _____ (child) on the slide.

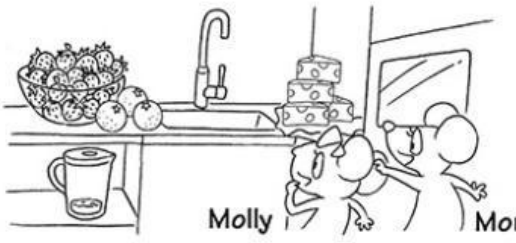

3 Penny is adding some _____ (corn) to the salad.

4 Are there any _____ (person) in the toilet?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Date: _____

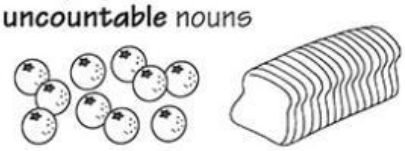

Determiners a lot of • a few • a little

Molly : Look! There are a lot of strawberries.
Momo: There is a lot of cheese too.
Molly : There are a few oranges.
Momo: There is a little juice.
Molly : Let's eat!

a lot of

with plural countable or uncountable nouns

a lot of oranges / bread

a few

with plural countable nouns

a few sandwiches

a little

with uncountable nouns

a little congee

Practice Fill in the blanks with 'a lot of', 'a few' or 'a little'.

1 Sara has _____ tomatoes.

2 Grandma cooked _____ beef.

3 We had _____ hot dogs for lunch.

4 There are _____ vegetables.

5 There is _____ soup.

6 Jim bought _____ books from the book shop.

7 Dad saw _____ mice in the cupboard.

LIVEWORKSHEETS