

Chapter 3

Know About the World

Answer these questions to know more about our diverse and wonderful world :

1. In which country is Adam's Peak located? _____
2. Which is the highest capital city in the world? _____
3. The name of which landmass means 'opposite to the Arctic'? _____
4. Across which countries will you find the Patagonian ice cap? _____
5. Which Indian state is known as the 'Land of Lamps'? _____
6. To which country do the Galapagos Islands belong? _____
7. Which is the highest waterfall in the world? _____
8. Which river flows by the most number of national capitals? _____
9. Which river has a tributary called the Tungabhadra? _____
10. The Amazon river flows into which water body? _____
11. Which continent is also known as 'the last of the lands'? _____
12. Which island country hosts the giant, flightless parrot called the kakapo? _____
13. Who designed the city of New Delhi? _____
14. Which is the largest land-locked country in the world? _____
15. Which is the southernmost national capital in South America? _____

BOOST UP

The Galapagos Islands are located on the equator. These islands are so desolate that they are often called the 'world's end'.

LIVEWORKSHEETS