

2. Use the words given to rewrite the sentence without changing its meaning:

How about packing sunglasses and tracksuit bottoms for our trip?

Let's _____

Why don't we go to the local sanctuary center?

How about _____

Let's have a party at my place.

Why don't we _____

Let's pack sun cream and mosquito nets.

What about _____

I want to borrow you some sci-fi books.

I would _____

Do you want to go downtown with me this weekend?

Would you _____

You can bring some chips and nuts.

You could _____

3. Reorder the sentences:

great/ from/ It's/ to/ you./ hear/ _____

to/ for/ getting/ Thanks/ me/ back./ _____

nice/ from/ to/ It's/ hear/ you./ _____

to/hope/ I/ from/ hear/ soon./you/ _____ from/ I'm/ to/ hearing/ forward/ you./ looking/ _____ could/ It/ you/ your sister/ great/ if/ be/ to/ take/ the party./ would/ _____

4. You want to invite your English friend, Hannah, to your birthday party.

Write her an email. In your email:

- invite Hannah to your birthday party
- say when and where it is
- tell her if she should bring anything.
