

Chapter 26

World of Computer

A computer is an electronic data processing device which can read, write, compute, compare, store and process large volumes of data with high speed, accuracy and reliability.

Read the given descriptions and fill in the blanks :

1. _____ refers to buying or selling goods and services through the internet.
2. Short message sent through a mobile phone is called _____.
3. _____ is celebrated as World Computer Literacy Day.
4. _____ is the thing that is easy to use for the user.
5. A web page that serves as a publicity accessible personal journal for a person _____.
6. 'Don't be evil' is a tagline of _____.
7. Portable document format is the full form of _____.
8. A programme which is both informative and entertaining is called _____.
9. Computers, work through special instructions called _____.
10. Person who is conversant with the latest gadgets and technology is known as _____.

Help Card

Infotainment, December 2, E-commerce, User-friendly, PDF, SMS (Short Messaging Service), Home Page, Google, Algorithms, Tech Savvy

BOOST UP

Charles Babbage is the inventor of the first mechanical computers. He is known as the "Father of Computers".

LIVEWORKSHEETS