

Chapter 43

Crafts of Our Land

Handicrafts are the hand-made goods by expert craftsmen. India has a rich heritage of handicrafts. Indian handicrafts are admired all over the world. Here are the descriptions of some unique handicrafts of our country.

Write the name of the state, where they originated, using the Help Card :

1. Zardozi is a legacy of the Mughals. It is the heavy embroidery done with gold and silver thread on sarees, coats and shoes. It originated in _____.
2. Kalamkari is the traditional craft of _____.
3. Terracotta is the art of making red clay statues and horses. It is from _____.
4. Meenakari is the art of enamelling jewellery. It was introduced by Raja Man Singh of _____.
5. Madhubani paintings are drawn with thick lines. They depict life, God and mythological figures, it is an art form developed in _____.
6. Bandhani is the art of dyeing clothes with natural vegetable colour. It originated in _____.
7. Phulkari means 'work of flowers'. The flower motifs, curves and geometric patterns are woven on fabric with silk thread. It is an art form developed in _____.

Help Card

Rajasthan, Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Punjab, West Bengal, Uttar Pradesh, Gujarat

LIVEWORKSHEETS