Read the two ads provided for Malaysian food festivals carefully and fill in the blanks with not more than 3 words / number.

Sarah: Hey David, have you seen these two ads for the Malaysian food festivals?

David: Yeah, I checked them out. They both sound amazing!

Sarah: Totally! But I'm torn between the _____ and Moonlight Gardens. Which one do you think we should go to?

David: Hmm, well, Sunflower Park is on _____, right?

Sarah: Yup, it's on Saturday from 10 AM to 6 PM. But Moonlight Gardens is on Sunday.

David: Ah, got it. And Sunflower Park opens at _____, while Moonlight Gardens starts at 11 AM, correct?

Sarah: Exactly! Sunflower Park is a bit earlier. But Moonlight Gardens stays open until 7 PM, an _____ later than Sunflower Park.

David: Hmm, that's a tough choice. Sunflower Park might be less crowded early on, but Moonlight Gardens gives us more time to enjoy the food.

Sarah: Yeah, and Sunflower Park is closer to my house, but Moonlight Gardens has that _____ for kids under 10.

David: Right, that could save us some money. Let's see... what about the entry fee? It's RM 7 for Moonlight Gardens, and 5 for Sunflower Park, right?

Sarah: Yup, you got it. So, considering the time, venue, and discounts, which one do you think we should go to?

David: Hmm, I think we should go to Moonlight Gardens. The extra time and discount make it worth it, don't you think?

Sarah: Yeah, you're right. Moonlight Gardens it is! Thanks for helping me decide, David.

David: No problem, Sarah. I can't wait to try all those delicious Malaysian dishes!
