My first camping trip

Last summer, I went camping for the first time in the south of France with my family. But the dream vacation that my parents had been promising didn't start very well. (1) _____ He was so determined to finish quickly that he forgot to put sunscreen on or a hat, and by the time he had finished with the tents, he was as red as a tomato. An hour later he started to feel dizzy, and by the evening he had a fever. Luckily, there was a doctor at the campsite. (2) _____

That evening, with my father resting in the tent, my mother, sister and I decided to make the campfire. I collected the firewood from the forest and my sister cleared the area outside the tent for the fire. When I had collected enough wood, I decided to light the fire. I looked around for the matches, but I couldn't find any. (3) _____ Luckily, I had learned survival skills at school and I managed to light the fire by rubbing a stick onto a piece of light wood. It wasn't easy, but I soon realized something. It is important to always be prepared on camping trips!

LIVEWORKSHEETS
