

Complete the Sentence

Use the words in the list below to complete the sentence

INTRODUCTION

1. Choosing a roof under your head is not an _____ take
2. Comfort, location and safety are some _____ to consider before reaching the final decision.
3. A house or an apartment? That remains as a constant _____ among people
4. _____ I prefer an apartment but only to a certain extent.

Personally, yard balcony,
aspects location easy
future compound debate privacy breathtaking.
laundrettes

BODY 1

5. To begin, the _____ for most apartments are usually city-centred, located close to everything you need, shopping centres, administrative offices or access to information.
6. Also, being surrounded by all sorts of facilities like _____ and grocery stores at the ground floor really boost up the quality of living as it eases our daily routines.
7. Additionally, the view from most apartments are guaranteed _____
8. Having the admirable views from the _____ of the apartments can indeed make anyone to relax and unwind after a busy day of working.
9. Thus, living in an apartment can satisfy the desired characteristics of the _____ way of living.

BODY 2

10. However, it is undeniable that living in houses has its own benefits too especially for big families with children.
11. Houses mainly have its own _____ and _____ making the parents to feel less worried to allow them play around the area.
12. Besides, houses offer _____ from nosy neighbours which you can't get if living in an apartment.
13. Although it wouldn't be a harm to check in on the neighbours occasionally.
14. Hence, houses can be worthy for families as a whole.

CONCLUSION

In brief, choosing a place to live is always tightly connected to our personality as it is a matter of personal choice. The only way to make the right choice is to weigh the pros and cons based on your needs.