

BRIDGERTON 3RD SEASON

EPISODE 2. TIME: 10:47. 11:40

Collin:

-Why is it you want a husband?

Penelope:

-So that I may have my freedom. So I may feel comfortable in the world.

Collin:

-I see. And it will be finding that comfort in yourself will get you there. What is the one thing in the world that makes you feel most comfortable now? Most at ease?

Collin:

-Before the self-consciousness of adulthood set in. Before we started caring what others think...

Penelope:

-Colin, it is impossible to be in society and not care what others think. Society is entirely composed of the judgment of others.

Collin:

-Do you know what I discovered when I was abroad? No one knew me. No one knew who I was supposed to be. I was entirely freed of being the Colin Bridgerton the ton knows me to be. Which is how I became myself. Pen, living for the estimation of others is a trap. Once you break free, the world opens up.

Penelope:

-It used to be Sunday teas at Bridgerton House. It was one of the few places I could go unchaperoned and truly be myself. But...that is no longer a possibility.
