

Chapter 47

Amazing Flowers

Flowers are the reproductive parts of plants. They make the world beautiful around us.

Information about some amazing flowers are given below. Identify them and write their names using Help Card :

This flower is native to Mexico and is one of the most beautiful rare flowers, which gives out a chocolatey odour when it blooms.

_____

This is one of the rarest flowers in the world, which exists only in the UK and New Zealand.

_____

It is a self pollinated flower that produces a sticky substance to trap insects and suck nutrients from it.

_____

This flower was declared extinct in 1992. Two years later, it was found again, growing in an inhospitable environment.

_____

This flower produces sandalwood-like odour and is claimed to bloom every 3000 years.

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6

This rare flower, mainly found in the forests of Sri Lanka blooms only at midnight.

_____

7

This is one of the rarest flowers in the world, which was discovered in 2002, growing on a mountain slope in Wales.

_____

8

This spider web-like flower found in Cuba and Florida, is one of the rarest flowers in the world.

_____

9

This flower's petals are black in colour. It also has bat like whiskers.

_____

10

Found in the Canary Islands, the name of this flower comes with its resemblance to a bird's beak.

_____

BOOST UP

Rafflesia is consider as the largest flower on the earth.

Help Card

Chocolate Cosmos, Youtan Poluo, Black Bat Flower, Middlemist Red, Campion, Snowdonia Hawkweed, Ghost Orchid, Cape Sundew, Kadupul Flower, Parrots Beak

LIVEWORKSHEETS