2. Read the passage and answer the questions. (2,0 points)

My name's Martin and I'd like to tell you about a trip I had recently. My parents are both artists. My mum makes things from silver, and Dad makes art from things that he finds on the beach. So at the weekend, my brother and I went to the beach to help him, while Mum stayed at home and worked. I always love these days with Dad because we never know what we'll find, and anything can be useful. At the weekend, we found some long, rough pieces of wood under some rocks. Dad made those into some beautiful sea birds! I found some round, smooth little stones, and I really liked the colours. I took them home and used them to make a picture. It looks good in my room! I want to become an artist just like Mum and Dad one day!

Complete the answers with information from the passage. WRITE NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS.
