

Simple present and present progressive

1 ★☆☆ Complete the chart with the sentences below.

Jorge usually gets up at six. Magda is sleeping now. Right now, Marcos is playing soccer.
Carla goes to bed at ten every night. Tina is talking on the phone right now.
David normally has English at one o'clock.

Routines – Simple present	Present actions – Present progressive
Jorge usually gets up at six.

2 ★☆☆ Complete the sentences. Use the simple present or present progressive form of the verbs in parentheses.

- Annabelle watches TV every day. (watch)
- Normally, I _____ to bed at ten o'clock. (go)
- At the moment, Maria _____ her new shoes. (wear)
- Mom and Dad _____ dinner in a restaurant now. (have)
- We _____ usually _____ the bus to school. (not get)
- Right now, Julia _____ her book. (read)

3 ★★★ Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs below.

do go hate listen make play teach watch wear wear

Hi! My name is Max. I'm fourteen years old. I usually
(1) wear jeans and a T-shirt to school.
Right now, I (2) _____ blue sweatpants and a white T-shirt. After school, I normally
(3) _____ soccer with my friends, or we
(4) _____ a DVD together.

At the moment, my friends (5) _____ their homework. My sister is two years older than me. She normally (6) _____ to her friend's house after school. Right now, she (7) _____ to her favorite music. I (8) _____ it – it's awful! My mom is a teacher. She (9) _____ math in a high school. She's in the kitchen now. She (10) _____ dinner.