

Simple present and present progressive

1 ★★★ Complete the chart with the sentences below.

Jorge usually gets up at six. Magda is sleeping now. Right now, Marcos is playing soccer.
Carla goes to bed at ten every night. Tina is talking on the phone right now.
David normally has English at one o'clock.

Routines – Simple present

Jorge usually gets up at six.

Present actions – Present progressive

2 ★★★ Complete the sentences. Use the simple present or present progressive form of the verbs in parentheses.

- 1 Annabelle watches TV every day.
(watch)
- 2 Normally, I go to bed at ten o'clock. (go)
- 3 At the moment, Maria wears her new shoes. (wear)
- 4 Mom and Dad have dinner in a restaurant now. (have)
- 5 We usually not get the bus to school. (not get)
- 6 Right now, Julia is reading her book. (read)

3 ★★★ Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs below.

do go hate listen make play teach watch wear wear

Hi! My name is Max. I'm fourteen years old. I usually (1) wear jeans and a T-shirt to school. Right now, I (2) are wearing blue sweatpants and a white T-shirt. After school, I normally (3) play soccer with my friends, or we (4) watch a DVD together.

At the moment, my friends (5) are doing their homework. My sister is two years older than me. She normally (6) goes to her friend's house after school. Right now, she (7) is listening to her favorite music. I (8) hate it – it's awful! My mom is a teacher. She (9) teaches math in a high school. She's in the kitchen now. She (10) is making dinner.