Fill-in-the-Blank Exercise: Using Verbs of Preference and Correct Verb Forms

Objective:

To practice using verbs of preference (love, like, hate, enjoy, prefer) in simple sentences with correct verb forms.

Instructions:

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs: love, like, hate, enjoy, or prefer, and the correct form of the following verbs. Ensure that the sentence makes sense in context.

1. I _____ _____ (eat) ice cream because it is sweet.
2. She _____ _____ (do) homework because it is hard.
3. They _____ _____ (watch) cartoons every weekend because it is fun.
4. He _____ _____ (eat) broccoli because it tastes bad.
5. We _____ _____ (listen) to music because it is relaxing.
6. Do you _____ _____ (play) soccer or basketball?
7. My sister _____ _____ (dance) because she feels happy.
8. I _____ _____ (get) up early because I want to sleep more.
9. She _____ _____ (read) stories because they are interesting.
10. We _____ _____ (go) to the park because we can play there.
11. He _____ _____ (run) because it makes him feel strong.
12. Do you _____ _____ (draw) or _____ (paint)?
13. They _____ _____ (visit) their grandparents because they love them.
14. I _____ _____ (go) to the doctor because I feel scared.
15. She _____ _____ (bake) cookies because they taste good.

LIVEWORKSHEETS