ELEMENTS OF FAIRY TALES

1

What is the primary purpose of a fairy tale?

A. To entertain and teach a moral lesson
B. To showcase the author's writing skills
C. To provide historical information
D. To depict real-life events

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2

Which of the following is NOT a common element found in fairy tales?

A. The presence of magic
B. Talking animals or objects
C. The use of numerical patterns
D. Detailed descriptions of modern technology

3

Why are the beginnings of fairy tales often set in "a faraway land" or "long ago"?

A. To avoid referencing specific historical events
B. To distance the tales from the reader's reality
C. To establish a sense of mystery and wonder
D. To make the stories seem more believable

4

What lesson does the story of Little Red Riding Hood teach?

A. The importance of obeying one's parents
B. The dangers of wandering off the path
C. The need to be wary of strangers
D. All of the above

5

Which of these fairy tale elements is designed to engage the reader's imagination?

A. The incorporation of moral lessons
B. The use of talking animals
C. The presence of royalty
D. Both A and B

6

What is the significance of the number three in many fairy tales?

A. It is a lucky number in many cultures
B. It represents the past, present, and future
C. It creates a sense of balance and symmetry
D. It is a symbol of wholeness and completeness

7

How do fairy tales often portray the struggle between good and evil?

A. By featuring characters with extreme personalities
B. Via the inclusion of a clear moral message
C. Through the use of magical powers
D. All of the above

LIVEWORKSHEETS