

Chapter 49

Animal Quiz

Read the description and write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements :

1. A shark can have as many as 50 rows of teeth. ☐
2. A glow worm's light can be seen 90 m away. ☐
3. Snails live only on land. ☐
4. Dogfish can be trained to bark. ☐
5. There is a small kind of African antelope called the dik-dik. ☐
6. The baby tapir has a coat of spots and stripes till it is eight months old. After that, the coats become plain. ☐
7. Flamingoes are the only water birds that live alone. ☐
8. An anteater can catch only one ant at a time with its tongue. ☐
9. Anacondas can grow up to 15 meters in length. ☐
10. The chameleon can look in two different directions at the same time. ☐
11. Chimpanzees usually sleep in nests that are built on trees. ☐
12. The Tasmanian Devil gets its name because of its blood-curdling nocturnal screams. ☐

LIVEWORKSHEETS