Tom: Hey, Liu! When did you get back from Dublin?

Liu: Late last night. We missed our ... what do you call the ships that take your car?

Tom: Ferries?

Liu: Yes, we missed our ferry because Mum left her <sup>1</sup> _____ at the hotel, so we had to drive back to get it. Luckily, we didn't have to buy <sup>2</sup> _____ again.

Tom: But did you have fun in Dublin?

Liu: Oh, yes. But we had some problems there too. One day the police stopped us because one of our <sup>3</sup> _____ was moving in a strange way. They asked to see my father's <sup>4</sup> _____, but he couldn't find it ...

Tom: What happened then?

Liu: He found it, and we called a mechanic who fixed the car. Then we had very little <sup>5</sup> _____, and we arrived at a petrol station just before the car stopped.

Tom: It sounds like you had an adventure there! Was it easy to find your way around?

Liu: Oh, yes, although we didn't have a <sup>6</sup> _____ because Mum prefers her phone app, but then one day all our phones lost the internet connection ...

Tom: Ha ha! But what about Dublin?

Liu: I loved it! I want to go back, but not with my parents!
