

Grammar focus: Daily Routine

[illegible]

The diagram shows a boy named Bill's daily routine. At the center is a large yellow sun with the text "Bill's day". Surrounding the sun are ten illustrations of Bill performing various activities: sleeping, sitting up in bed, smiling, standing by a door, eating, riding a bicycle, studying, playing ping-pong, swimming, and reading.

Part A: Fill in the blanks.

1. Bill usually _____ (get up) early in the morning.
2. He _____ (brush) his teeth twice a day.
3. He _____ (eat) breakfast with his sister every morning.
4. After breakfast, he _____ (get) dressed.
5. Then, he _____ (ride) a bike to school.
6. He _____ (study) from 8 am until 3 pm.
7. After school, he _____ (play) table tennis with his friend.
8. He _____ (go) back home and _____ (take) a bath.
9. He _____ (do) homework almost every night.
10. He always _____ (go) to bed at 9 pm.

Part B: Answer the questions.

What do they do every day?

Name	Cook food	Ride a bicycle	Do homework	Walk to school	Drink milk
Sam		/			/
Nancy	/		/	/	/
Tom		/			/
Jack		/	/		/
Susan	/		/	/	/

1. Does Sam walk to school every day? _____
2. Does Susan ride a bicycle every day? _____
3. Do Nancy and Susan walk to school every day? _____
4. Do Nancy and Susan cook food every day? _____
5. Does Tom walk to school every day? _____
6. Does Nancy do homework every day? _____
7. Do the boys cook food every day? _____
8. Do the girls do homework every day? _____
9. Does Jack walk to school every day? _____
10. Does Susan drink milk every day? _____

