Task 1: Fill in the gaps with was/ were/ wasn't/ weren't

Cities in the past and now

Cities now are not the same as the cities that people used to live in 50 years ago. In the past, for example, there (1) _____ a lot of buildings, they were just small. The street (2) _____ narrow, but the vehicles (3) _____ crowded. Public transportations (4) _____ popular. Especially, There (5) _____ a lot of parks, green lands and playgrounds. It (6) _____ easy to contact with others. Because there (7) _____ no internet, no smartphone in the past, they connected by writing letters. In contrast, the environment (8) _____ by far different. The air (9) _____ fresher without pollution or traffic jams. Therefore, outdoor activities (10) _____ always a good choice at the weekend. However, cities now are not like they used to be. High buildings, as well as the old low ones, are everywhere. There are many office blocks, apartments, companies, schools, and universities. The big number of vehicles is increasing every day. Private cars are parked here and there. It is not easy to find a fresh place in the city. So, cities now seem very different from the cities in the past.
