

1. Circle the correct words.

Yesterday, Tom took a/the/- trip to the mountains. He wanted to explore the/a/an nature and enjoy a/- /the fresh air. As he hiked up the/-/an trail, he saw the/a/an deer grazing in a meadow. Suddenly, he heard the/-/a rustling sound behind the/a/an bush. Tom cautiously approached and discovered an/a/the abandoned campsite. Inside the/-/a tent, there was a sleeping bag and a/an/the backpack. It seemed like someone had been camping there recently. Tom continued his journey, feeling excited about the/a/an adventures awaiting him.

2. Complete the gaps with the, an, a or -.

____ vacation in Italy is ____ dream come true for people who appreciate wine, antipasti, and medieval architecture. Standing tall at the first position in the list of Italian foods that you must try is ____ Spaghetti alla Carbonara. ____ Italians are very proud of the dish, so appreciating every bite of it is costumary. And no, you are not going to find ____ trace of cream or milk in ____ authentic Italian Spaghetti alla Carbonara. One of ____ most popular Italian dishes across the globe is the Risotto. For instance, ____ Risotto alla Milanese is infused with saffron that is ____ expensive commodity in itself. By now you must be salivating all over your mobile screen so why not book ____ vacation in Italy and try out all these delicacies