

interchange 16 LET'S MAKE A DATE!

A Imagine this is next month's calendar. Write 10 plans on the calendar. Use these expressions and your own ideas.

go to (the movies/a party)
go (dancing/shopping)
go (on a trip/on vacation)
study for (a test/an exam)
go out with (my girlfriend/boyfriend)

play (basketball/video games)
meet (my friend/teacher)
have dinner with (my brother/parents)
visit (my parents/grandparents)
see (the dentist/doctor)

B GROUP WORK Look at your calendars. Agree on a date to do something together.

- A: Do you want to do something on March third?
B: I'd like to, but I can't. I'm going to play volleyball then. How about March fourth?
C: That works for me. What time?

C GROUP WORK Now decide what to do together. Then share your plans with the class.

- A: We can all do something on March fourth. Would you like to play video games?
B: No, I don't like to play video games very much. Do you want to go to a museum?
C: Well, I really don't like museums. ...
