

- ① Join the two sentences into one using after, because, before, when, although, but, or while. Use each of these words only once.

1. my mom does not want me to / I will go to the party

2. you should clean your room / you eat

3. some of my classes are interesting / others aren't

4. I took piano classes / I lived in Monterrey

5. my pet needs a bath / it has fleas

6. the birthday party ended / her brother fell

7. I was studying for my English exam / my mother cooked

- ② Add an independent clause to each dependent clause to create a complete sentence. Your sentences can start with the dependent or independent clause.

1. before we saw the bear

2. after we entered the cave

3. because I dropped my flashlight

4. when the rain started

5. although we couldn't see

6. if we ran fast enough

7. while we were running

8. when we opened our picnic lunch

Draw yourself
one year older.

