1.Put the phrases from the box in the correct form.

break up with	confide in	devastated	fair weather friend	keep a secret
persuade	reliable	rely on	trust

Sarah had always been someone you could ...... She kept her promises and was known to .....no matter the temptation. When John needed to .....the board to approve his project, he took Sarah's.....input and insights into account.

However, Sarah was.....when she discovered that her closest colleague, whom she had considered a friend, turned out to be...... This colleague had broken a promise to support her during a crucial meeting and instead, sided with their rivals.

Feeling betrayed, Sarah decided to.....the idea of..... easily again. She realized she had to be more cautious about whom she ..... in the future.

1.Put the phrases from the box in the correct form.

break up with	break a promise	confide in	devastated	fair weather friend
keep a secret	persuade	reliable	trust

1.I always .....my best friend because she gives the best advice.

2. He .....to meet me for dinner, which really hurt my feelings.

3. She can be trusted to ....., no matter how big or small.

4. It took a well-crafted presentation to ..... the marketing team to approve the new advertising campaign.

5. I.....my brother completely because he has never let me down.

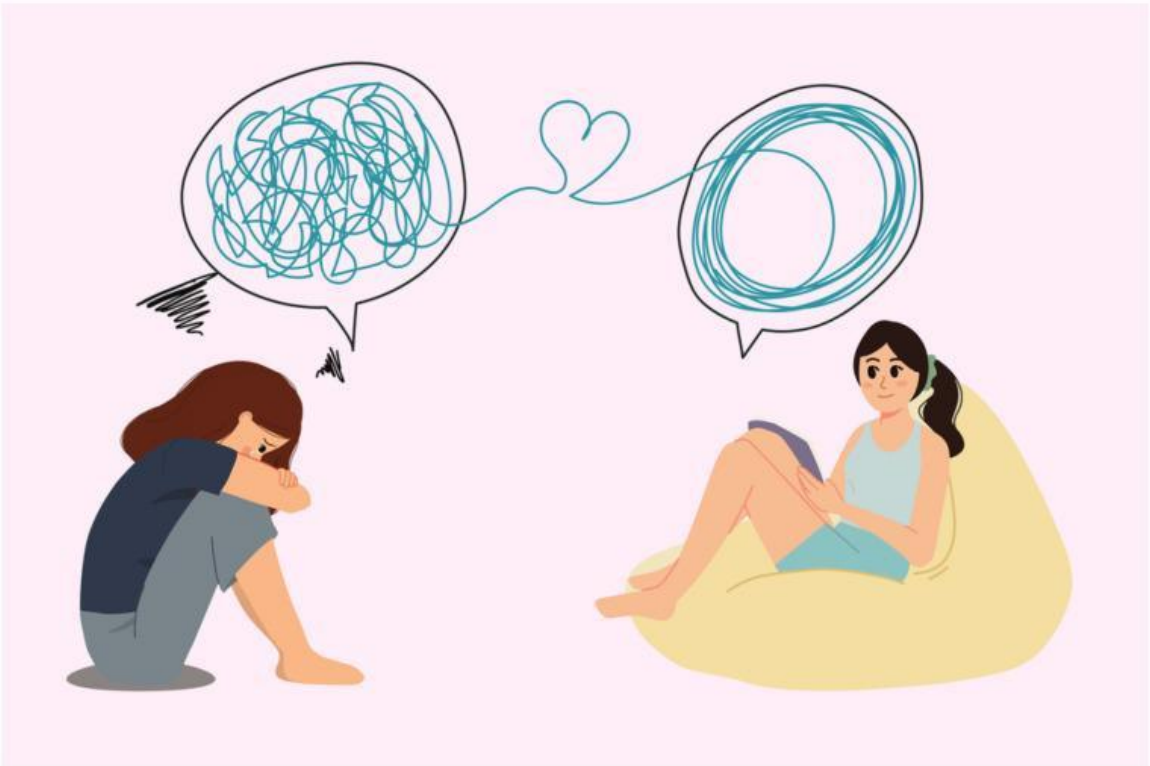

6. She is so ..... . She always meets deadlines and does everything on time.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. I realized she was just a ..... when she disappeared during my tough times.

8. He was ..... by the news of his grandmother's passing.

9. She decided to ..... her boyfriend after months of constant arguments.

LIVEWORKSHEETS