

Einstein grew into a brilliant and imaginative / imagining young man who was passionately / perfectly interested in science. He was also a very lively correspondent and did / made a point of replying to any letters he received from children. His intelligent, friendly face with its untidy mop of silvery hair is well-known, apart / yet as a young man he had short, coal-black hair and a serious, thoughtful appearance. The face of the Jedi Master Yoda in the Star Wars films was copied / inspired by Einstein's wise expression.

Sadly, Einstein's theories were used to develop nuclear weapons and, ultimately, the atomic bomb. Einstein never forgave / upset himself for what his discoveries had led to. Shortly before he died in 1955, he wrote a letter to the newspapers urging scientists to unite to predict / prevent the possibility of another nuclear war in the future.

Circle the letter of the correct option to complete these sentences.

- 1 The text about Albert Einstein is aimed at:
 - A scientists who wish to discover more about his work.
 - B general readers who have an interest in science.
 - C students who want to find out more about careers in science.
- 2 The purpose of the text is to:
 - A give a detailed description of Einstein's greatest achievements.
 - B suggest reasons why Einstein became such a great scientist.
 - C provide a summary of Einstein's personality, life and work.

4 Style features

Find one example of each of these features.

- a direct address to the audience

.....

- b writer making connections with the reader (we/us)

.....

- c writer sharing information about himself/herself

.....

CB Section A6