Technology-Computer

Name   :

Class   :

Number:

Topic Focus

In this topic, we will think about computers. You will be introduced to some useful vocabulary and then do some listening practice.
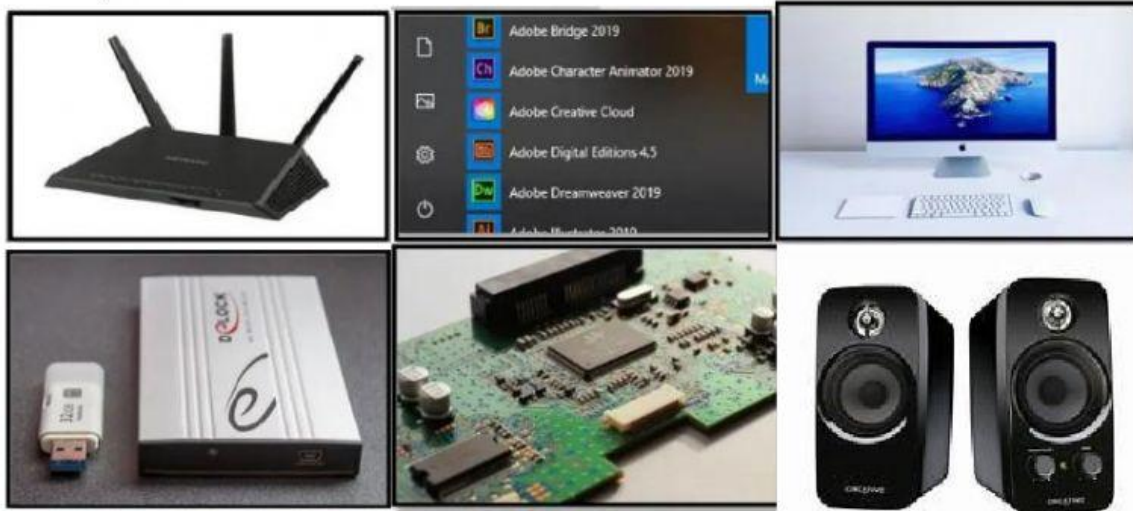

Exercise 1 - Lead-in

Think about the two questions below.

- What problems have your experienced with computers recently?
- Were you able to solve these problems? If so, how?

Exercise 2 - Vocabulary to describe computers

- What can you see in the pictures? Think of as much vocabulary related to computers as possible.

Exercise 3: Did you think of any of the words in the box below?

> desktop - processor - hard disk – router – mouse

Choose the best answer in the sentences.

1. Unlike a laptop, a desktop computer has a separate screen, keyboard and

2. You can back up your files onto memory stick or external

   This is especially useful if you want to move them from one computer to another.

3. A   connects the computer to the internet.

4. The most important chips inside the computer are the   , where the computer perfoms operations, and the memory, which holds the information the computer is working with.

5. You can adjust the settings on your computer by clicking the Windows icon in the bottom left of the