Written Composition

Watch the video. When you witness something like this you should be able to describe it so well that to others who were not there are given a clear picture of the whole thing. Write about what the sounds movements sights smells that are around during and after a storm.

The Storm