

PYGMALION

(Upstream B1+ SB p.49)

1. How could Eliza express herself in a formal, polite style? Complete the second column with the phrases below.

POOR GIRL (Slang)	LADY (Formal language)
Don't you be so saucy.
I ain't come here to ask for any compliment. If my money's not good enough I can go elsewhere.
I'm come to have lessons, I am.
Well, if you was a gentleman, you might ask me to sit down.
Don't I tell you I'm bringing you business?
I won't be called a baggage if I offered to pay like any lady.
I want to be a lady in a flower shop instead of selling at the corner of Tottenham Court Road. But they won't take me unless I can talk more gentle.
He treats me as if I was dirt.
I know what lessons cost as well as you do; and I'm ready to pay.

I'm treated as if I were a beggar.

Don't talk to me like that.

I'm interested in having lessons with the professor.

Haven't I made the reason of my visit clear to you?

I am not here to ask for any compliment; and if you think I can't afford it I can ask elsewhere.

I wouldn't welcome such rudeness, especially since I'm willing to pay any fee.

Well, if you were a gentleman, you would offer me a seat.

I'm aware of the fees and I'm willing to pay any price.

I want to work in a flower shop rather than being a poor flower girl. But I would never be accepted if I can't behave like a lady.
