

Past Simple - Regular Verbs
Pronunciation of the -ed ending

I. Write the pronunciation of the -ed ending on the lines. /d/, /t/ or /ɪd/

Opened	  d  	Offered	  d  	Hoped	  t  
Belonged	          	Possessed	          	Climbed	          
Laughed	          	Flipped	          	Fantasised	          
Faxed	          	Arranged	          	Attacked	          
Bowed	          	Contended	          	Fetches	          
Floated	          	Fished	          	Dived	          
Carved	          	Finished	          	Crashed	          
Pledged	          	Absorbed	          	Allowed	          
Collapsed	          	Camped	          	Struggled	          
Drained	          	Dispatched	          	Lived	          
Planted	          	Decided	          	Started	          
Launched	          	Offended	          	Confirmed	          
Received	          	Called	          	Distributed	          
Missed	          	Moved	          	Smoked	          
Fasted	          	Flushed	          	Entered	          
Cleaned	          	Hated	          	Travelled	          
Spilled	          	Played	          	Unplugged	          
Changed	          	Banged	          	Dismissed	          
Explained	          	Watched	          	Exploded	          
Waited	          	Collided	          	Slashed	          
Seemed	          	Dragged	          	Elbowed	          
Peeled	          	Erased	          	Sprinkled	          
Liked	          	Emphasised	          	Closed	          
Splashed	          	Committed	          	Wanted	          
Stopped	          	Apologised	          	Observed	          

II. Work out the rules for the pronunciation of the -ed ending.

-ed is pronounced /t/ when _____

_____

-ed is pronounced /ɪd/ when _____

_____

-ed is pronounced /d/ when _____

III. Circle the word whose pronunciation of the -ed ending is different.

- |                 |             |                |               |
|-----------------|-------------|----------------|---------------|
| 1. a. laughed   | b. smiled   | c. cried       | d. moved      |
| 2. a. stopped   | b. clicked  | c. rubbed      | d. shipped    |
| 3. a. washed    | b. crossed  | c. mopped      | d. corrected  |
| 4. a. infected  | b. used     | c. lined       | d. encouraged |
| 5. a. studied   | b. rolled   | c. expressed   | d. cleaned    |
| 6. a. closed    | b. opened   | c. played      | d. pushed     |
| 7. a. breathed  | b. rushed   | c. hurried     | d. grabbed    |
| 8. a. ended     | b. failed   | c. interpreted | d. omitted    |
| 9. a. received  | b. kissed   | c. packed      | d. stocked    |
| 10. a. defended | b. intended | c. focused     | d. infested   |

IV. Read the following sentences paying special attention to the pronunciation of -ed endings. Make sure you “connect” the -ed ending to the next word when it begins with a vowel sound.

1. They entered a flat and robbed it.
2. They called and promised to come.
3. She typed a letter and mailed it to me.
4. She changed her clothes and hurried out.
5. Colin fasted on Saturday and collapsed again during the class.
6. I peeled a tomato. I sliced it, and finally I wrapped it in tin foil.
7. After the accident Fiona was rushed across the town to the hospital.
8. The maid mixed all the ingredients and sweetened them with honey.
9. We answered all the questions they asked about our destroyed equipment.
10. When the wind blew, the windows banged and we all jumped at the same time.
11. Harriet received a big amount of money but then she squandered it in two days.
12. The sightseers walked along the cobbled alleyway and then stopped at the station.
13. Betty washed a blouse and then she ironed it, but then she spilled some coffee over it.