Vacations

THEN AND NOW

When Pausanias wrote a [1]guidebook / stove / chalet about Greece, the people he wrote it for were very different from the [2]sunglasses / tourists / goggles who go there today. That's because it was nearly 2,000 years ago, and when people went [3]to / for / on vacation in those days, it was for months or years – not for two weeks. Yes, all those years ago, people went sightseeing [4]on / for / around different places.

Today, people want to go by plane to somewhere hot, to see the ocean [5]in / from / over their hotel window or to go skiing [6]in / at / with the mountains and take photos [7]to / for / with their cameras. But there are a lot of people who enjoy camping [8]to / at / with friends, too.

All they need is a tent and a [9]stove / snorkel / goggles to cook on. It's not a very comfortable vacation, but it's a great way to see and enjoy the countryside.
