

Vocabulary

Reporting verbs

1 Choose the correct alternatives.

- 1 I'd forgotten about my dentist's appointment. Thanks for remembering/reminding me.
- 2 My maths teacher accused/threatened to tell my parents if I didn't behave.
- 3 My youngest daughter denied/admitted drawing on the wall, but I knew it was her.
- 4 I wanted to turn round and go home but Mike agreed/insisted we keep going.
- 5 My son agrees/refuses to keep his room tidy despite constant nagging!
- 6 I wasn't sure about joining a gym but Sara advised/convinced me it was a good idea.
- 7 Beatriz apologised/admitted for dropping food on her friend's sofa.
- 8 My brother always blames/denies me for his broken bike but it wasn't me!

2 Complete the conversations with the correct form of the words in the boxes.

1 accuse convince deny insist

A: Jamie has just ¹_____ me of trying to steal his idea and present it as my own but I'd honestly thought of it myself.

B: Did you ²_____ stealing it?

A: Of course I did, because he's wrong – but he doesn't believe me.

B: Did you ³_____ that you were telling the truth?

A: I did, but nothing I said could ⁴_____ him.

2 advise blame refuse threaten

A: My boss just asked me to work overtime at the weekend. I ⁵_____.

B: What did he say?

A: He ⁶_____ to sack me if I didn't do it but I ⁷_____ him not to do that as I'd complain to his manager if he tried it.

B: What did he say to that?

A: He ⁸_____ me for the poor sales in our department.

3 admit agree apologise remind

A: I finally talked to Alison yesterday after our argument. I ⁹_____ her that it's Dad's birthday next week. She ¹⁰_____ to come to his party.

B: Oh, that's good. Did you ¹¹_____ for what you said?

A: Yeah, I said I was sorry for not trying to understand her side of things. She ¹²_____ that she'd been wrong, too.

B: Sounds like you can be friends again then. Or cousins!