Instruction: Read the Princess Jasmine side of the story. Change the verbs to the simple past form.

When Aladdin entered my life, everything changed. He _____ (1)steal into the palace, but his intentions (2)are noble. At first, I (3)don't trust him. He _____(4)show me a world beyond the palace walls, a world of freedom and adventure. We _____(5)explore the bustling streets of Agrabah together, and I _____ (6)discover a new side of myself.

One day, he _____ (7)take me on a magic carpet ride. It _____ (8)is exhilarating! We _____ (9)fly through the night sky, and for the first time, I _____(10)feel truly free. But when he _____ (11)confess his true identity as a street rat, I couldn't believe it. How could someone so charming and brave hide such a secret?

Then, the Genie _____ (12)appear with his magic lamp. He ____ (13)grant Aladdin three wishes, and our lives _____ (14)change forever. We (15)fight against the evil Jafar and his schemes. Aladdin _____ (16)use his wishes wisely, proving his worthiness and his love for me.

In the end, we_____ (17)defeat Jafar and _____ (18)restore peace to Agrabah. Aladdin _____ (19)become a prince in both name and heart. Our love _____(20)overcome all obstacles, and we _____ (21)live happily ever after.

LIVEWORKSHEETS