

1. What are tariffs?

2. What is the main topic of the article ?

3. Why do countries engage in international trade ?

4. Can you give an example of a country that exports and imports specific ? goods?

5. What is the overall impact of international trade on economic growth?

● Tariffs are taxes on imports.

● Yes, Japan exports cars and imports oil.

● International trade is a vital part of economic growth.

● Countries engage in international trade to obtain goods and services they do not produce domestically.

● The main topic of the article is the importance of international trade.