

1. What are tariffs?
2. What is the main topic of the article ?
3. Why do countries engage in international trade ?
4. Can you give an example of a country that exports and imports specific ? goods?
5. What is the overall impact of international trade on economic growth?

- Tariffs are taxes on imports.
- Yes, Japan exports cars and imports oil.
- International trade is a vital part of economic growth.
- Countries engage in international trade to obtain goods and services they do not produce domestically.
- The main topic of the article is the importance of international trade.