

Scientific Method

Directions. Connect the concept with its definition.

Ask a question

It is a possible answer to your question.

State your hypothesis

These are notes, pictures, charts, or graphs.

Identify and control variables

You do the test many times

Test your hypothesis

Things in an experiment that can change.

Collect and record your data

It is a decision you make based on your data.

Interprete your data

You might have a question about something you observe.

State your conclusion

Organize your notes and records.

