

Reading

- 1 Look at the photo and read the email.
Where is Mike's work trip?

From: Yoshi26@email.com
To: MikeD@abcnet.com
Subject: Tips for Tokyo

Hi Mike, how are you? I'm OK. I'm always very busy at work, but I like my new job. How's your job at Telefónica?

So, you've got a work trip to Tokyo? Great! It's a good city to visit. Here is some information to help you in Tokyo.

¹Take the metro. It's not expensive, and the Tokyo metro is big. There are stations everywhere. Taxis are expensive. Don't take them.

²Visit Asakusa. There's a beautiful temple there. Also, ³go to Harajuku Park on a Sunday. There are lots of interesting people there – take your camera!

Try Japanese food. ⁴Go to an izakaya (a Japanese café) and eat some gyoza. ⁵Drink some sake or green tea.

⁶Take a coat. Tokyo is cold in January.

Mike, have you got a hotel? I live in the Shinjuku area. It's in the centre of Tokyo. Come and stay with me?

Take care and see you soon!

Yoshi

- 2 Read the email again. Match tips 1–6 with photos A–F.

- 3 Read the email again and answer the questions.

- Who lives in the centre of Tokyo?

- Who has got a very busy job?

- Which form of transport is not cheap?

- Which two places are good to take photos?

- What is gyoza?

- When is Mike's work trip?
