

1. Match with a line the characteristics with the correct animal classification.

Their body is covered by scales, they are cool-blooded, and they have dry skin.

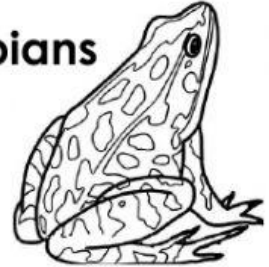

They live on land and in water, they have moist skin. They don't have scales.

They have six legs, they have a pair of antennae and they have two wings.

Their babies drink milk from their mothers' body. They are warm-blooded. Their body is covered by hair or fur.

They have feathers, they have two legs and two wings, they are warm-blooded, and they lay eggs.

• amphibians

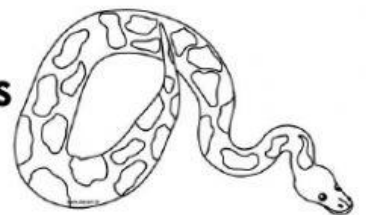

• mammals

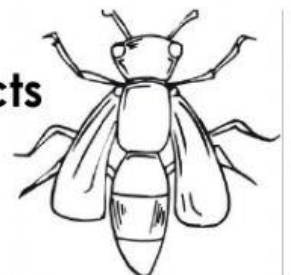

• birds

• reptiles

• insects

2. Match the following words with the pictures, in order to complete the sentences.

health care

tolerance

access to education

scarcity

A person has the right to have _____ in order to study and get better opportunities to live.

_____ is one of the biggest challenges around of the world, many people don't have enough food and water to live.

It's important to practise the _____ with others, although their beliefs, behaviours and ideas are different from yours.

Some _____ systems have had problems as a consequence of pandemic; many people didn't have access to this right because of the high demand of medical services.

3. Read carefully each sentence and choose the best option.

A) In the future, I think _____ have to purify seawater for our crops.

a) will

b) won't

c) well

B) Michelle caught the animals _____ a frog had jumped on the teacher's head.

a) after

b) before

C) _____ Michelle brought live animals, teacher had told that they needed to bring only pictures.

b) after

b) before

D) Many people probably _____ do the things that they did before COVID-19, I think they will definitely have a new lifestyle.

a) will

b) probably

c) won't

4. Read the following number words and circle the best option.

1. One thousand, three hundred fifty-eight

a) 1,3058

b) 1,368

c) 1,358

2. Twelve thousand, five hundred, nine.

a) 12,59

b) 12, 509

c) 12,590

A different language is a different vision of life

Thanks for did your best! 😊