Preserving the Beauty of the World

1. According to the speaker, what is one of the most important things we need to do to prevent climate change from getting worse?

a. Increase income inequality
b. Hold corporations accountable
c. Increase the human population
d. Encourage more car usage

2. What is the speaker most afraid of regarding the future of the world?

a. Weird weather
b. Lack of renewable energy sources
c. Continued car dependence
d. Decreasing environmental awareness

3. The speaker suggests that decreasing the human population could help the Earth, but how does he think this can be achieved?

a. Mandatory sterilization
b. Increasing household incomes and women in the workforce
c. Banning contraceptives
d. Increasing birth rates

4. According to the speaker, what is one of the biggest contributors to climate change?

a. Poverty
b. Deforestation
c. Overpopulation
d. Lack of green innovation

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. The speaker believes that by 2030, it is important for companies to:

a. Acknowledge their faults but not take action
b. Apologize but continue with their current practices
c. Acknowledge their faults and take action to address them d. Ignore their environmental impact

6. What does the speaker think is a key way to reduce emissions and improve the environment?

a. Increasing the use of gasoline
b. Relying more on nuclear energy
c. Encouraging more car usage
d. Decreasing income inequality

7. The speaker expresses concern about the world being "car dependent" by 2030. What does he believe is important to address this?

a. Finding an alternative to gasoline that produces fewer emissions
b. Increasing the number of cars on the road
c. Encouraging the use of public transportation
d. Investing in more highways and roads

8. According to the speaker, what is one of the most important things that needs to happen by 2030 in order to address climate change?

a. Increasing the human population b. Decreasing access to renewable energy
c. Holding corporations less accountable
d. Providing access to renewable energy sources across income levels

9. The speaker believes that in order to address environmental issues, we need to:

a. Ignore partisan issues and focus on humanity
b. Increase our focus on partisan issues
c. Maintain our current practices and behaviors
d. Decrease our awareness of environmental problems

10. What does the speaker hope that people will realize about the importance of preserving the beauty of the world?

a. It is not important and should be ignored
b. It is only important for plants and animals, not people
c. It is important to preserve the beauty of the world, both for people and the environment
d. It is only important for certain parts of the world, not the entire planet

LIVEWORKSHEETS