Holiday island

Anna, Pete, Tim and Sue are on holiday on a small island. On their first morning, their father is taking them for a walk. They are exploring the beach.

Pete: Look! Here's a cave!
Sue: Wow! It's really dark in there. I can't see the back of it.
Anna: Can we look inside, Dad?
Dad: Let's all go in. But you must be careful.
Tim: Why? Are there pirates in there?
Pete: Don't be silly, Tim!
Dad: Of course there aren't any pirates! But you mustn't climb on the rocks. They are wet and you can easily fall.
Anna: Come on, everyone. Let's find something interesting.
Sue: It smells strange in here.
Dad: It's the seaweed.
Pete: It's chilly, isn't it?
Tim: That's because there's water dripping down the walls.
Sue: The rocks are rough, and there are tiny shells on them.
Dad: Be careful, they're sharp.
Pete: Look at this seashell. It's as big as my hand.
Sue: It has a lovely curly pattern. It's really pretty.
Anna: This shell has spikes. Look, it's smooth and pink inside.
Tim: Mine is curly and it's pointed at the top.
Sue: I've got this shell. It's flat and it looks like a little fan.
Dad: Well, look at this. It has spots!

Anna: What's making that noise?
Tim: It sounds like water splashing.
Sue: I can hear it, too. Is there a little stream somewhere?
Tim: Yes, there it is. It's running out from under that rock.
Sue: Let's go and see.
Dad: You mustn't go past the rock.
Tim: Alright, Dad. Look here. There's a pool.
Sue: Great! I'm going to look for a crab.
Anna: Perhaps there's one under that stone. Turn it over.
Sue: Ouch! The water's icy. Oh, look!
Pete: Is it a crab?
Sue: No, it's treasure! A gold necklace.
Tim: And it has jewels!
Sue: Dad! See what we've got.
Dad: It's very beautiful.
Anna: Can we keep it?
Dad: No, of course not. We must take it to the police.
Pete: Do we have to?
Dad: Yes, we do. This necklace is valuable. It belongs to someone. The police can find out who lost it.
